Taybeh-Ramallah, Palestine

Everything related to Taybeh is extremely revolutionary if not extraordinary. In the middle of intense conflict, you find a community striving to be normal and crying out to the world for the need to do astonishing things in the middle of oppressed conditions.

Taybeh responds with peaceful resolutions of celebrating its existence to boost the economy and hosted the first and only Oktoberfest in Palestine (2005).

Following a very successful two day celebration of support for Palestinian products made in Taybeh, the Oktoberfest become an annual event under the umbrella of the Taybeh Municipality with all of its local civic organizations and organized by the Taybeh Brewing Company as the initiator of the incredible event making the dream of Nadim Khoury come true.

Taybeh Beer is trying to stay a beaming light in Palestine and named No 1 Beer (2008) among Palestinian restaurants, bars and hotels.

Taybeh Beer is not your ordinary product. It's an extraordinary product because it challenges all Palestinian companies to see Taybeh Beer as the ultimate role model of distinction. Since 1995, when it entered the market, Taybeh Beer, has maintained an image of premium quality that reflects if Palestinians have their own country and freedom, we too can make outstanding products.

The master brewer, Nadim Canaan Khoury, brews Taybeh Beer for beer lovers no matter what their religion, culture or ethnic background. If you love beer, you need to select Taybeh, since it's simply, The Finest in the Middle East. Nadim is so proud of his hand crafted micro-brew that he clearly places his signature on every bottle.

A female Brewster, Nadim's daughter, Madees also brews that successful craft-style beer that simply reflects democracy and freedom in Palestine.

If you come to Taybeh you might feel the hospitality and warmth that Saladin must have felt in the late 12th century when he called the people "Taybeen," actually initiating the name change from Biblical Ephraim to Taybeh for this tiny place that welcomes you for a day of fun, food and Taybeh Beer.

WHAT IS OKTOBERFEST?

The Oktoberfest is a sixteen-day festival held each year in Munich. It is one of the most famous events in the city and the largest festival in the world and an important part of Bavarian culture.

HISTORY OF OKTOBERFEST

The Oktoberfest celebrated its 198th Anniversary (2008), only wars and cholera epidemics have briefly interrupted the yearly beer celebration.

It began with the Royal Wedding on 12 October 1810.

Crown Prince Ludwig, later to become King Ludwig I, was married to Princess Therese of Saxony-Hildburghausen on 12 October 1810. The citizens of Munich were invited to attend the festivities held on the fields in front of the city gates to celebrate the happy royal event. Horse races in the presence of the royal family marked the close of the event that was celebrated as a festival for the whole of Bavaria. The decision to repeat the horse races in subsequent years gave rise to the tradition of Oktoberfest.

OKTOBERFEST-IN-SEPTEMBER?

Oktoberfest traditionally starts in the 3rd weekend in September and ends the 1st Sunday of October.

OBSESSED WITH TAYBEH

Maria C. Khoury, Ed. D.

I have developed a deep obsession, given that I live full time in Palestine. Following the historic Oslo Agreement, I was fooled into believing that Israelis and Palestinians can actually live side by side. I can only say that since 28 September 2000, the landmark day for the Second Uprising, I simply have not had a normal day, with the collapsed economy and the reoccupation of the Palestinian Territories.

I have developed a deep obsession with inviting people to our small Palestinian village of Taybeh, which is my way of trying to be normal. Probably inviting people to a beer festival in Palestine does not sound normal at all since we hardly have a country; but technically speaking, the country has a national beer that carries with it our pride in Palestine.

My husband David returned to Taybeh with his brother Nadim to boost the economy by opening the one and only microbrewery in the Middle East region (1995), and in 2005, they initiated an Oktoberfest - Palestinian style.

Taybeh Beer means everything right now. It means that we want to work for a modern Palestine where democracy, freedom, and human rights would encourage all to thrive. It means that we are just craving to be "normal."

The Taybeh Oktoberfest has become the big open day in Taybeh. As we try to find creative ways to survive the closure and the high rate of unemployment, we are always promoting our local products. Thus, if you catch me telling you that I would love to see you in Taybeh, it is not just an obsession but a genuine invitation.

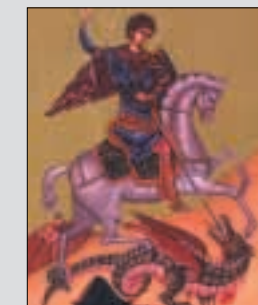

Taybeh established the Municipality Council of Government (1997)

2005-first democratically elected Mayor of Taybeh,

Daoud Canaan Khoury

"On behalf of the Municipality Council, we hope you will enjoy your stay. Please feel free to contact us for possibilities of strengthening our presence in the Holy land."

St. George, Patron Saint of Taybeh

Welcome to Taybeh

Taybeh is located 14 km to the north east of Ramallah and 20 km from Jerusalem. It sits 930 meters above sea level near the highest mountain in the West Bank, Tel Asur, 1016 meters high. Taybeh is in a magnificent location overlooking the Jordan Valley and the Dead Sea. It is famous for its olive trees, in addition to figs, grapes, almonds and Taybeh Beer. Taybeh is one of the most ancient places in Palestine, dating back to the Bronze Age. Established between 2900-2000 BC, Taybeh is mentioned in the Old Testament as Ofra (Joshua, Judges, I Samuel). It is Ephraim, the village in which Jesus chose to stay with His disciples before His Passion (John 11:54).

Keeping Taybeh one of the most beautiful places in Palestine!

Note: Dr. Maria C. Khoury has served as the festival coordinator for the Oktoberfest for four years and is planning the 5th Annual Taybeh Oktoberfest October 3 & 4, 2009. (Email: khourymaria@hotmail.com)
